Instructions for The Pit and Pendulum Timeline

Each part of this foldable has a purpose. This foldable will be taken as a test grade, so be sure to follow instructions and work hard to complete all parts of the foldable.

Front:

How is this story a representation of Dark Romanticism? Provide textual evidence to support your thoughts. (answer this anywhere on the left flap)

Extra Credit: Find a song, image, or poem that you feel was inspired by Poe or “Pit and the Pendulum”. Place all or part of the item you find on this flap. Write a very explanation along with the item.

Inside of Foldable:

On the left and right flap, draw 10 images that represent the events in the story. Along with each image, write a short description using the vocabulary from the story.

Four of your descriptions need to be TEXTUAL EVIDENCE
Part One: Answer the two questions below

1. How do you see Poe's life reflected in this story?

2. Write a short, 3-5 sentence alternate ending that the Puritans or the Transcendentalists would approve of. Look back at your notes for help.

On the back of your foldable, discuss three of the following literary terms. Write the term, define the term, then explain how the term is found in the story. Each explanation needs to include TEXTUAL EVIDENCE.

Theme
Symbolism
Imagery
Author's Point of View
Tone